The Red Clay Consolidated School District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its programs and activities.

We are fortunate to live in a country that provides us with so many opportunities: opportunities to realize our dreams, to improve our lives. We have opportunities millions of people around the globe may never have. Did you know there are millions of children in the world who will never have the opportunity to receive an education?

So the opportunities are here, but opportunities themselves don't guarantee us anything. It takes more. Now listen to this fatherly advice from Major John L. Griffin. He says:

... I want my son to realize that there is plenty of opportunity for him to achieve success, but whether he wins or loses depends entirely on his own character, perseverance, intelligence, and capacity for hard work.

In other words, we choose what we will do with our opportunities. Today, choose well. Take advantage of all the opportunities a good education will provide.
